How Women Vote in Wyoming.

From the Inter-Ocean.

CHEYENNE, WY. T., Oct. 20.
In Wyoming elections, as is well known, the women are a power which cannot be ignored. When the occasion seems to require it, the better sort of ladies go to the polls as well as the ignorant and vicious.
From my own observation I should say that the woman voter, while less familiar with character and party principles, is more conscientious, independent and instinctively right than the male voter. They scratch their tickets a good deal.
At the polls there is nothing objectionable to the lady voter. The law requires a cleared space of fifteen feet square in front of the ballot box. The utmost quiet prevails, and when a lady walks up to deposit her ballot she meets nothing but deference and politeness from officials and spectators. Usually they ride up to the polling places in carriages provided by the party managers. The lady, with her vote already prepared, alights from the carriage, the crowd, if any, quietly falls back to the open passage way, while she walks to the window or opening behind which sit the clerk and election judges, gives her name, drops her vote on the box and returns. Her age is not inquired into. Nobody challenges a woman's vote. The man with hardihood and fool courage to do that is not known to this race of people. The Republican Campaign Committee made a fine stroke recently by hiring in advance all the teams in the city to provide carriages for all the ladies and men voters residing at a distance.

Fast Horses.

From the Scientific American.

The standard trotter is one that can cover a mile in 2:30. It is said that less than 500 of all the horses raised and trained in the United States have this record. The number that can trot in 2:50 bear the ratio of 1 to 2,388 horses raised. As a business the breeding of fast horses is very much of a lottery; and when we recall the fact that the high prices which famous colts have brought have rarely been received by the men who raised them, the prizes in breeding and training trotters are few and uncertain.

A Husband's Authority.

Lawyer Komisky, arguing in a divorce suit at New Orleans, held that a husband had a legal right to make his wife stand in a corner with a spring clothespin on her nose. "If such mild means of compelling obedience are forbidden," he said, "what is to become of the husband's authority as the master of the household?"

THE REVISED BIBLE.

"The University presses of Oxford and Cambridge are expected to issue the revised New Testament next February. The Old Testament will be published two or three years after. If the Bible is an inspired book, what right has any man to revise it, and can the revision be accepted as a divine book?"—Virginia Enterprise.

Our esteemed Comstock contemporary has asked a question which will be apt to provoke a smile. Speaking for itself alone, the GAZETTE will recognize the new version of the Bible to be as much a divine book as the old. The Bible has been translated into English. No one supposes literary errors to be inspired, nor does the approval of King James bind anyone to adhere to them. The new version of the Bible will be as correct and faithful a translation as the highest scholarship and the most painstaking labor can make it. Being thus made perfect, the new version will inevitably supersede the old. There can be no sound objection to the revision. The utmost fidelity to the meaning of the original has been preserved, and the work will be as accurate as the sectarian color.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Sarah Dempsey, aged 111, the oldest woman in the State of New York, was found dead in her solitary hut on the Ulster Mountains, near Ellenville. She had died from starvation. It is said that Mrs. Dempsey had lived in this hut, miles from any habitation, for many years. She had been solitary in her habits ever since she was abandoned by a young man with whom she eloped from school when a girl. "Before the dead woman's body was found a piece of paper, on which was scrawled in pencil: 'My God, I am dying of hunger. My money will be found.' and there it ended."

The bank County of Richmond from Port Elizabeth, N. J., to St. Thomas, W. I., founded after a hurricane last month. Two of the crew were subsequently picked up by an Austrian ship. The men had been seven days drifting about in the open sea. One of the forward house, exposed to the hot sun by day and the cold waves by night. In those seven days they had nothing to eat except seaweed and water. Both the men survived and have completely recovered. Under the circumstances, their fate was nearly as hard as Dr. Tanner's, KOKIHTUH A. 030 3.

Politics are the common theme now concerning the health of Senator Grover, of Oregon. This solicitude does not spring entirely from personal admiration for the famous Senator. It is owing to the consideration that if he should be too unwell to attend the next session of the Senate, the Republicans, with whom he would have a majority without the vote of the Vice-President, Senator Grover has been reported very ill, but is reported to be improving. O. I.

The Battle of the Press this morning has been the banner of the Republican cause. The reason of its cutting down a Democratic majority and becoming Garfield to be its choice by 98 majority. If the State is carried by the Republicans, it will be on the vote of this county. The Chinese letter made no impression here, and the party stood up and fought the battle without financial aid from the State.

We direct attention to the copy of the letter regarding Nevada's money which appears in today's issue. There seems to be no good reason why the present contract with Langdon & Clark should be renewed. The State can have less expense in its substitution with its own banks, and our contributors should know.

Isn't John Kelly a splendid fellow? The Democrats are making a mistake in him. "John Kelly" is the name of the man who is the President of the New York and the Presidency.

Will you keep the warning? The cough is perhaps the sure approach of that terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourself if you are coughing, and if you do, to run the risk and do nothing for it?
